

JULIET & THE ELF

The curated music subscription that gets families jamming out to everything from Mozart to Marsalis.

Welcome to Juliet and the Elf! We're an up-and-coming subscription e-newsletter and playlist platform delivering the best of Classical and Jazz music to get kids all over the world moving and grooving.

Each biweekly newsletter is served up with a side of sass and packed with recommendations, tips, and links to our latest Classical and Jazz playlist, inviting parents and children to use music as a tool to explore, engage, relax, or even nap (woo hoo!).

Here at Juliet and the Elf, we're all about Intentional Inspiring Music, which is music that has inherently complex patterns. Jazz and Classical fall into this category, and once a child's brain is stretched to make sense of those musical complexities, learning other sophisticated ideas in math, science and languages, for example, becomes a whole lot easier.

Juliet and the Elf wants to dispel the myth that Classical and Jazz genres are stuffy, dull snooze fests. Our playlists offer accessible and uncomplicated musical menus that will get families engaged and inspired. Some of our most popular playlists include Great Jazz Dance Party for when kids want to jam out, Beethoven Shimmy to get those neurons popping, Calm after the Storm to evoke the wind-down vibe and Sleepy Music for Babies to cue beddy-bye.

So come and discover the incredible world of Classical and Jazz with Juliet and the Elf at julietandtheelf.com or @julietandtheelf on Instagram. Happy listening!
